Kitchen Company

Readers' Choice: JM Kitchen & Bath

The folks at JM Kitchen & Bath take pride in their ability to combine the attentive customer service of a local company with large-scale manufacturing abilities, thanks to a 6,000-square-foot workshop where they customize cabinetry. Not only can they supply your next remodel or new build, but they'll do your installation, too. JmWoodworks.com

Editors' Choice: Kitchens by Wedgewood

We salute Kitchens by Wedgewood because they manufacture custom kitchen cabinetry right here in Colorado. Peter Wyckoff started a little cabinet shop in Boulder in 1984, and today he's the CEO of a company that's grown up into one of Colorado's finest kitchen cabinetmakers. You'll love working with their friendly team of designers, and you can get behind their green efforts, too. WedgewoodCabinetry.com

Tile Source

Readers' Choice: Capco Tile & Stone

Capco is the kind of place you'll want to visit: It offers beautiful products at fair prices in a setting that makes you realize how much you can do with tile and stone. (We love the mix-and-match vignettes throughout the showroom.) Capco stores much of its product in the warehouse on-site, so you don't have to wait to get your tile or stone. ### Editors' Choice: Ann Sacks

Peruse Ann Sacks' exquisite collection of tile at her Denver showroom, where you'll find a marvelous range of styles—natural contemporary, exotic, classic, playful—that will serve as works of art in your home's functional spaces. AnnSacks.com

Interior Lighting Designer

Readers' and Editors' Choice: Robert Singer & Associates, Inc.

In our opinion, light makes or breaks a space. And the designers at Aspen-based Robert Singer & Associates know how to make a space shine perfectly with design that is sophisticated and smart. Need inspiration? Head to their website, which tells the story of lighting design with gorgeous photos. RobertSingerLighting.com

Wallpaper Source

Readers' Choice: Guiry's

Guiry's has been around so long, its employees used to deliver wallpaper in horse-drawn wagons. With experience like that, it's no wonder our readers chose Guiry's as their favorite place to buy wallpaper. The family-owned business stocks each of its seven Front Range stores with at least 200 wallpaper books—some stores have as many as 400. Add to this collection lovely art supplies and enough paint samples to satisfy even the pickiest color palettes, and you've got a perfect spot to find inspiration. Guirys.com

Editors' Choice: Kravet & Lee Jofa

Walking through the Kravet and Lee Jofa showrooms at the Denver Design District is a two-for-one treat. We love that we can stroll through their connected space and find beautiful wallpaper to suit nearly every style. (Once you find what you like, call your designer; these showrooms sell only to the trade.)

Our latest obsession: Kravet's new wallpaper collections, especially the grass cloth and Barbara Barry lines. DenverDesign.com ▶
